Marking the Writing tasks

In the Writing section, candidates are assessed against four assessment criteria. Each writing task is assessed separately. Candidates may be awarded 0-3 marks per criterion – or up to 12 marks in total per writing task. Writing tasks are evaluated through the use of task-specific mark schemes. Each level has its own task-specific mark scheme with detailed descriptors for Task Fulfilment, Grammar, Vocabulary, and Organisation. Brief definitions of the assessment criteria follow in the table below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Criteria</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Task Fulfilment</td>
<td>The extent to which the response produced by the candidate addresses the task in a direct and convincing manner, provides an answer that is relevant and meaningful, and satisfies task and genre specifications (e.g. word count).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Accuracy and range of grammar</td>
<td>The extent to which the response produced by the candidate is grammatically accurate, appropriate and adequate for the level and genre required.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Accuracy and range of vocabulary</td>
<td>The extent to which the response produced by the candidate is lexically accurate, appropriate and adequate for the level and genre required.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organisation</td>
<td>The extent to which the response produced by the candidate is organized in an appropriate and coherent manner, in terms of paragraphing, cohesion and punctuation, as dictated by the level and genre required.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Spelling
American or British English spelling is accepted.

Over and under length answers
Where an answer fails to reach the minimum word length, this will be taken into account when awarding marks for Task Fulfilment.

Where an answer obviously exceeds the maximum word length, a candidate is bound to have produced a text of lower quality (i.e. to have made more mistakes) due to time constraints. No explicit penalty is to be imposed on over-length responses.

Off-topic answers
Candidates do not receive any credit for off-topic answers.

The boy don't see also that bream he see and other dream that night but I don't tell you!

Bye-Bye

Omid your friend
Two content points attempted, but minimal communication is achieved, as meaning often breaks down.

There are serious errors (‘It tell for a little boy who see a bream one night with him bied mum and her tell him to hear dady granny whey love him.’), with a range below the expected at B1 level.

Range and spelling are limited and the message is often difficult to understand.

It is reasonably organised, uses basic linkers and is mainly coherent.

Fail
Dear Maria

I thought that I should tell you about my favorite book and why you should read it.

My favorite book is called «mysteries in the town». The book is about five teenagers that have a dream of being detectives one day. These five teenagers made a team and they solve mysteries together. But one day a mini market gets robbed by two thieves. Finally the team solves the mystery of the robbery.

I think you should read it without a doubt because it has action and plot twists. I think that you will love it once you read it.

love,
Chiara
Marking Criteria

Dear Sirs

I am writing this letter to you to tell you about the job of a restaurant reporter.

First of all, I have an experience of this job. I worked for 2 years like a restaurant reporter in a little town. But it hadn’t many restaurants in this town so I get fired. After that I would like to say that I have finished the university and I am a cef. So if I got the job I could understand many things about the food that they cook.

Secondly, I like all the kinds of food, I don’t have favourite. But I don’t eat pineapple because I am allergic.

Thirdly, I think that I would be good at the job because I have experience of this job and also I am a cef. In addiction to I love travelling and I don’t be sick of it. Also, I love eat food!

Thank you for your time and I hope to like my letter.
I am looking forward to hearing from you.

With faith

Dear mum,

I write this letter for you to explain an unexpected moment that happened during our holidays in Barcelona.

First of all, when we arrived at the hotel we left our suitcases and we went for a walk in a beach near from our hotel. We saw some people and we went with them for fishing. When we arrived we waited to catch any fish. After one hour with no fish my friend Nick had the good idea to swim and to see if there is any fish in the sea. He fell in the sea and after few minutes he started to screamed and to called for help.

In this time I understood that we wanted help and I with my friends fell in the sea to help him. When we took him from the sea he said to us that a poisonous fish had hurt him. In this time he took Nick from the beach and we transported him in the nearest hospital. The nurses said to us that he is good and that he staid in the hospital for few days. It was a difficult moment for us and we calmed down when nurse said that Nick is good and healthy.

To conclude, I would say to you that all are good and we will come in Madrid very soon.

Your daughter
Nastya
Task Fulfilment
The target reader is mostly informed, and the tone is mostly appropriate with some noticeable exceptions.

Grammar
There are many serious basic errors, particularly with infinitives and prepositions (for example, ‘we went with them for fishing’, ‘we waited to caught’, we had the good idea to swimed’, ‘he started to screamed’).

Vocabulary
Vocabulary range is limited for C1 and there are errors with basic items, for example ‘my fiends fell in the sea to help him’, ‘he staid in the hotel’.

Organisation
The text has some organisation and coherence, but it is limited. Some linkers are inappropriate for the text type.
Dear Dad,

Mam, Dad I have something to tell you. Well do you remember that I told about a trip that we were going with my friends? So we went to North Antarctic just to stay and have some kind of adventure for 5-6 hours. When we arrived there something horrible happened.

Chrish fell into the cold freezing water and we couldn’t pull him up because we were travelling on a really large boat, so one of us had to dive in the sea with an umbrella. I know that sounds crazy but we didn’t have any other equipment to pull him up so as they both grabbed the umbrella they were both trying to get on the boat. Chrish and Andrew got out of the water but they both collapsed from Hypothermia so we had to find a way to get them warmed.

Then someone showed up from the inside of the boat saying that he had been in the same situation and then he told us we need to light up a fire but first we had to sail the boat somewhere.

After two hours of trying to warm them they finally opened their eyes without even knowing what had happened.

And that was one of the craziest adventures in my life. I’m fine so don’t worry.

Yours,
Marta

Dear Nicolas,

I am writing to you, about a quote I read in a local newspaper “wealth is the slave of a wise man, the master of a fool.” I would like to express my opinion about this matter because I share the same opinion with this quote.

Nowadays, we are working every day like slaves and for what purpose? Most of employees, workers etc. trying to accomplish bigger networth that they will ever need. A great amount of people connects wealth with happiness that is wrong. What if all people in the world were rich? I think misery is upon us and we cannot realise what is most outstanding for our lives. Also, we have idolize the wealth but only a wise man can realize and manage money wisely without overwhelm him in life conditions. On the other hand, people who are lucking sense or judgment about wealth, trying to accomplish the big purpose. In this way they are spending a lot of effort for example, working overtime and spending more time with commitees than with their family.

To conclude with, wealth is needing careful handling and need concern about the priorities in life. If we don’t pay attention, we will regret about our choises later.

Yours,

Bartoloměj

Marking Criteria

Task Fulfilment
The reader is on the whole informed and the candidate mainly satisfies the demands of the task. The genre and tone of the text are mostly appropriate.

Grammar
A range of forms is used with control, but there are too many basic errors for C2 (for example, ‘most of employees’, ‘we have idolize the wealth’, ‘without overwhelm him’, ‘wealth is needing careful handling’).

Vocabulary
There is a wide range of vocabulary which is used effectively in the main body. There are occasional errors but they rarely impede meaning (for example, ‘overwhelm him in life contition’, ‘need concern about the priorities in life’).

Organisation
There are many punctuation errors and some issues with linkers, which can cause the reader to pause while reading the text. There is overall organisation, and reasonable coherence.

Dear Derek,

Hello. I have a while hearing from you. How are you? I am writing to you to tell you my opinion about a statement I had seen.

The statement says “Wealth is the slave of a wise man, the master of a fool.” First of all, wealth is a really important thing and it is good for everyone. But in this statement I have to say that a wise man needs to be wealthy because he can pass messages to the world. But with the caracterizm ‘slave’ I think that a wise man had took and leaved a lot of things from life and he is happy and plesured from what life gave to him, too. So, even if we got sick and die he would not mind because he will be rich from the goods of his knowledge.

On the other hand, a fool man had not learn much from life and had not find the meaning of it. So, he needs that wealth, for him to have the time to live and learn. Because as far as we live, as much as we learn. So, reasonably that quote caracterize wealth as ‘the monster’ of a fool man. I think that this quotation has a really big value and it is really deep comming from life.

I look forward hearing from you. I hope that you agree with my opinion. What is your opinion of this statement? Please, write me as soon as you can.

Best wishes

Štěpán
Task Fulfilment
The demands of the task are partially met, but the reader is minimally informed.

Grammar
There are many basic errors, but these largely do not impede communication (for example, ‘I have a while hearing from you’, ‘I think that a wise man had took and learned a lot’, ‘I look forward hearing from you’).

Vocabulary
There are gross errors with vocabulary and spelling for C2 level (‘with the caracterizm ‘slave’’, ‘he is happy and pleasured’, ‘resonably’, ‘comming’).

Organisation
The text has some coherence and plan, but does not flow well. There are punctuation issues which interrupt the reader (‘Because as far as we live, as much as we learn’).
