English Language Certificates for the New Generation

Reliable English language exams.
FUN-tastic for children.

LanguageCert Young Learners ESOL * (LYL) is a two-level English language exam, specifically designed to introduce young children aged 7-12 to testing and assessment in an enjoyable and positive manner. The exams can serve as a starting point, motivating students to move onto LanguageCert International ESOL exams at an older age.

Heritage & Innovation

Having acquired all the intellectual property and related assets from City & Guilds, LanguageCert advances the English language qualifications while ensuring that the highest quality standards are consistently met. Recognising the increasing need for young learners to become familiar with assessment processes while participating in stress-free exams, LanguageCert developed LYL according to the intellectual and emotional stages of young children.

LanguageCert is a member of PeopleCert Group, a leading global certification organisation, bridging language qualifications heritage with advanced examination and assessment technologies.
